

Josie Villareal & Christian Morales - IBMA - Philippines

Our primary mission is to help win souls and establish indigenous New Testament Baptist churches in the continent of Asia through the local churches. Our IBMA National Conference has just concluded. It was a rallying-point gathering of local churches, pastors, missionaries, church leaders, Bible college students, and full-time ministry workers to rejoice in the victories of the Lord upon our missions, refresh our vision of winning the lost, planting churches and making disciples, and renew our commitment to further the cause of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Baptism Class - If you have been saved but have yet to follow the Lord Jesus in Believer's Baptism, there will be a class on Baptism this morning at 9:45 during the Sunday school hour meeting at the parsonage. (House on the other side of the parking lot.)

Super 60s - Because our regular meeting falls on Good Friday morning, we will not be meeting this month. Instead we are inviting our seniors to come and enjoy the Good Friday Service.

Good Friday Service - You are invited! Bring the entire family to a special evening service. There will be readings from Scripture of Christ's final days and hours. Begin your Easter weekend by joining in a time of worship, reflection & prayer.

Easter Sunday Celebration - Come, hear the Easter/Praise Choir as they present a musical celebration of Christ's Resurrection: "Risen Redemption", at both morning services. Celebrate the most wonderful event in the Christian Calendar! There will be no Sunday School. Refreshments will be served between the services downstairs in the fellowship hall.
